Bryan Reception Arrangements Now Complete.

ALL THE TICKETS ARE GONE

Meeting of Executive Committee, at Which Seats Are Arranged for the Speakers and Reception Committee Is Selected-Banquet Opens at 8 To-night in the Raleigh.

Final arrangements for the banquet to be tendered William Jennings Bryan at man's store for Thanksgiving week, the Raleigh Hotel to-night were com> mittee last night. At this meeting several requests for tickets were made, but it was given out that not another ticket would be issued. All have been sold, and requests for as many more have been turned down because of a lack of seating room. There will be 494 persons at the table in the banquet room, and these will be so arranged that the speakers will be in position to face the entire assemblage.

Guests to Assemble. The guests have been asked to assemble in the hotel rotunda at 7:30 o'clock, so they may be seated by 8 o'clock. The speakers, in their order, will be: Assemblyman Hager, of New York; Representative Ollie James, of Kentucky; Representative William Sulzer, of New York; Perry Belmont, of New York; Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, and Hon, W. J. Bryan.

The toastmaster will be District Commissioner Henry L. West, who will in a short speech introduce Mr. Bryan and the other speakers.

The reception committee to have charge of the arrangements was named as fol-
